

SURPRISE YOURSELF IN CHILE TEACH ENGLISH AND LEARN SPANISH

So you want to leave your mark on the world. Have you ever thought about teaching English as a social contribution? Participate in a unique volunteer teaching program in one of the many, breathtaking regions of Chile, from the driest desert in the world, to the bustling metropolis, to dazzling blue glaciers.

Learn Spanish, immerse yourself in local culture, stay with a host family, encounter breathtaking natural wonders and touch lives by teaching in Chile, a safe country with stable democracy and leading economy in the region.

The National Volunteer Center (NVC) is an initiative of the English Opens Doors Program (EODP) developed by the Chilean Ministry of Education and the United Nations Development Programme-Chile. The NVC seeks to bring native English-speaking teaching assistants to work in the public school system to compensate the lack of exposure to native English speakers.
